ADR Chambers is a unique Alternative Dispute Resolution Group. Our members are retired Judges and Senior Counsel and other dispute resolution experts dedicated to assisting the legal and business communities, both nationally and internationally, in resolving disputes in an expeditious and cost-effective manner.

Originally established in Toronto in October of 1995, ADR Chambers has since expanded to include panels providing ADR services across Canada and internationally.

Our Retired Judges are formerly of the Superior and Appellate Divisions of the Provincial and Territorial Courts across Canada.

Our Lawyers are retired Senior Counsel and others who are still in the active practice of law and are called upon to assist in mediations and arbitrations based on their specialties in law.

Our Other Dispute Resolution Experts are retired members of the insurance industry, professors of law, engineers, architects, accountants and other professionals who offer years of experience in dealing with disputes which arise in their fields of experience and training.

Our Strength is in our ability to offer dispute resolution experts to meet the specific needs of the individual client.

Our Services include Mediation, Arbitration, Mediation / Arbitration (Med-Arb), Early Neutral Case Evaluation, Mini-Trials as well as Private Final Appeals from Arbitral Awards or Trial Judgments (on consent).

ADR Training: We also offer ADR training through one of our divisions, The Stitt Feld Handy Group. We have taught ADR courses in North America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia. See www.sfhgroup.com for more information.

GOVERNMENT AND REGULATORY DISPUTES PANEL

Charles Harnick, Q.C., LSM

Formerly Attorney General of Ontario and Minister Responsible for Native Issues 1995-99, MPP Willowdale 1990-99; 20 years in Private Law Practice and 7 years in Government Relations Practice.

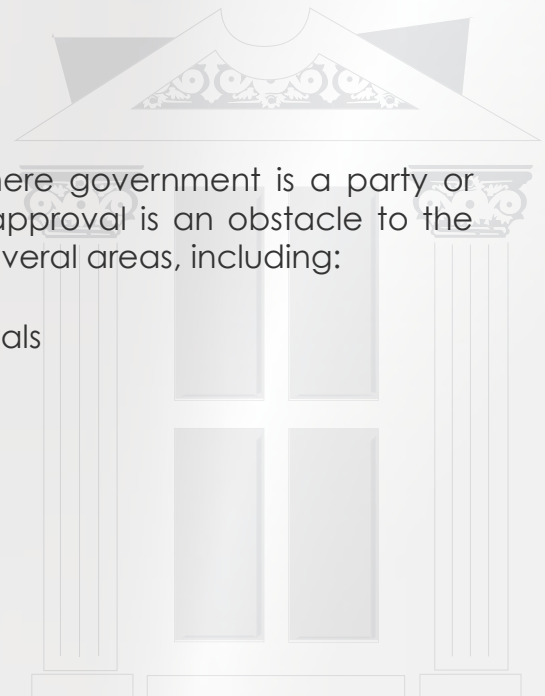

Rod McLeod, Q.C.

Formerly Deputy Minister Environment, Deputy Solicitor General and Chief Crown Prosecutor, Ontario, as part of 20 years in Public Law Practice; further 20 years in Private Practice avoiding/defending fraud and regulatory prosecutions.

- Mediation in disputes involving Government requires an understanding of how government works.
- Achieving resolution of a dispute between government and private interests demands sensitivity to both the public sector's program delivery requirements (the public interest) and the private sector's economic interests.
- Resolution of disputes involving Government should be as achievable by mediation as disputes involving private parties.

Charles and Rod will be specializing in mediating cases where government is a party or potential party or where lack of regulatory compliance or approval is an obstacle to the resolution of any dispute. They will utilize their experience in several areas, including:

- Environmental Regulation: process, compliance and approvals
- Infrastructure Renewal: process, compliance and approvals
- Energy Regulation
- Land Use Planning and Approvals
- Resource Management and Protection
- Occupational Health and Safety
- Food Safety
- Corporate and Securities Regulation
- Self Governing Professions
- Inter and intra governmental conflicts
