

THE CONDOMINIUM ACT: A USER'S MANUAL, 3RD EDITION

AUDREY LOEB, LSM, B.A., LL.B., LL.M.

The Condominium Act: A User's Manual, 3rd Edition fully updates the reader with the latest developments in condominium law and the Ontario Condominium Act, 1998. Written for lawyers, property managers, boards of directors and unit owners alike, here is the most convenient source of answers to the questions that will arise on a daily basis. You'll learn how the law is developing and what those developments mean to you.

EXCLUSIVE FEATURES

- Expert commentary – Organized along the lines of the governing legislation, with a general overview of each chapter and an explanation of each provision
- 45 “how-to and what you need to know” checklists – Key condominium functions and procedures, such as obligations of board members, notice requirements, meetings, voting, by-laws, rules, reserve funds, status certificates and maintenance and repair
- Fully annotated text of relevant legislation – Includes the Condominium Act, 1998 and the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act (Tarion Warranty Corporation) and regulations
- Hundreds of case summaries – Explaining through applicable court decisions how to interpret the statutory provisions – fully updated!
- User tools – A glossary of technical terms and an introductory chapter explaining the legal aspects of condominiums and condominium corporations
