Biography

Amanjot has recently completed her JD at Western Law. During law school Amanjot held the student leadership position as a member of the admissions committee at Western Law. During her first year of law school she served as an intern at Lakeshore Legal Aid where she assisted lawyers and clients on eviction matters.

Before joining Miller Thomson, Amanjot worked as an investment analyst at Scotiabank where she settled and handled discrepancies of estate accounts and analyzed trends of Scotia iTrades.

Prior to law school, Amanjot earned her Bachelor of Commerce degree with honours at McMaster University. During undergrad she competed in the MARS Apprentice program where she worked on real-world cases with companies such as Microsoft, PepsiCo and Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment (MLSE). One of her solutions for MLSE included digitizing ticket operations for the consumer experience which was eventually implemented.

In her spare time, Amanjot enjoys travelling, playing soccer and spending time with family and friends. Amanjot continuously gives back to the community by mentoring law students and individuals applying to law school.
