Biography

Paul graduated from the dual JD/MBA program at the University of Toronto. Prior to this he obtained an Honours Bachelor of Science in Behaviour, Genetics and Neurobiology from the University of Toronto.

Outside of school, Paul takes a keen interest in developing a well rounded skillset. This drive culminated in his participating in the Winkler Class Actions Moot and making it to the finals. He also enjoys giving back to the law school community. He founded the first ever Faculty of Law Athletics Association and took on a leadership position in the JD/MBA Association. His dedication and impact were recognized when he received the Dean's Leadership Award in 2018.

Paul is an avid basketball and Raptors fan. He continues to spread the message of "We the North" on behalf of the newly crowned NBA champions. He also enjoys exploring and practicing meditation.
