

Sarah Hallman-Krul

Associate | Waterloo Region

519.593.3212

shallmankrul@millerthomson.com

Biography

Sarah began her legal career as an articling student with Miller Thomson LLP where she began to develop her expertise in wills and estates and strengthen her connection to Waterloo region.

Prior to becoming a lawyer, Sarah worked in the retirement and long-term care industry, where she learned to approach client work with diligence and empathy.

As an estates practitioner, Sarah uses that experience to take a people-focused approach, ensuring the client is comfortable each step of the way.

RELATED SERVICES

Private Client Services

Community involvement

- Pro Bono Students Canada, Atlohsa Healing Centre Research Project
- Pro Bono Students Canada, Huron Perth Legal Clinic Project

Professional memberships

- Law Society of Ontario
- Waterloo Region Law Association

Bar admissions & education

- Ontario, 2023
- University of Western Ontario, J.D., 2022
- Culinary Management Diploma, Conestoga College, 2016
- B.A (with distinction), University of Guelph, 2014