Biography

Shannon is building a broad commercial real estate practice. She continues to expand her experience with involvement in commercial leasing, land transactions and real property financing.

Shannon summered and articulated with Miller Thomson and joined the firm as an associate after being called to the bar in 2021.

Shannon attended law school at Queen's University. In her third year of law school, Shannon completed an externship with the Department of Justice in Ottawa. Shannon was also a volunteer with Pro Bono Students Canada. In collaboration with her colleagues, Shannon created a policy for a Kingston non-profit organization with regard to new federal legislation.
