Boris Muchalov's corporate-commercial practice covers a broad range of transactions with an emphasis on bilateral and syndicated secured debt financings, asset-based lending, factoring, automotive floor plans, and acquisition and construction financings. He works on both domestic, cross-border and international transactions across a wide range of industries. Boris' clients include domestic and foreign banks, financial institutions, asset-based lenders, and corporate borrowers. He also acts as corporate counsel to a number of local and international manufacturing, automotive, retail, technology and real estate investment, development and construction businesses and as a trusted advisor to a number of high net worth individuals.

Boris is a strong believer in giving back to his community. He is a long time fundraiser for the Ride to Conquer Cancer benefitting the Princess Margaret Cancer Centre and a past participant with the Tour for Kids Cycling Adventure benefitting Camp Oochigeas, Camp Quality and Camp Trillium. He is an active supporter of many initiatives sponsored by his beloved St. Michael's College School, among other academic and community organizations. He is also a past member of the Board of Directors of All Saints Greek Orthodox Church and the Loretta Legacy Foundation.

Boris is an active member of several esteemed associations. His recognition in well-respected industry directories solidifies his reputation as a top-tier professional in his field. He is also a linguist who is fluent in Croatian/Serbian and Greek and proficient in French.
