Biography

David Reynolds practices commercial lending and private business transactions.

David advises banks, other institutional lenders and corporate borrowers in connection with secured and unsecured lending transactions. His expertise also includes syndicated transactions, single-lender transactions, financing of day-to-day operations, acquisition financing, asset-based lending, real estate financing, wholesale automotive financing, domestic and cross-border transactions.

In addition to his experience in commercial lending, David also advises and acts for clients in a diverse range of corporate transactions such as asset and share purchases.

David graduated from the University of Western Ontario (UWO) in 2010 with a Juris Doctorate. During his time at UWO, he worked as Program Manager of the Sport Solution Legal Clinic where he advised Canadian National Team and Olympic athletes on various legal issues.
