

Keith Talley

Chief Information Officer | Toronto

416.595.2989

ktalley@millerthomson.com

Biography

Keith Talley oversees the firm's technology infrastructure including: data, security, maintenance, support services and networks. As CIO, he works closely with the COO to set the firm's technological roadmap and is responsible for the strategic direction and management of all functions within the Information Technology department. This includes Application Services, Technology & Infrastructure Services, Help Desk, Enterprise Project Management and other roles embedded in other internal departments or practice groups.