

Nathalie Sicotte

Paralegal | Montréal

514.879.2137

nsicotte@millerthomson.com

Biography

Nathalie Sicotte is a corporate law paraprofessional at Miller Thomson's Montréal office. She joined the firm's Business Law Group in 2018. Over her 30 year practice in corporate and commercial law, she has acquired a solid sense of responsibility, as well as strong organizational and priority management skills.

Nathalie assists the firm's lawyers in preparing and drafting documents related to various transactions, including mergers, sales, acquisitions, restructurings, rollovers and other stock trades. She also reviews minute books for due diligence purposes. Nathalie prepares documents for incorporations, amendments, continuances and dissolutions.

Professional memberships

Canadian Association of Paralegals (CAP)

Languages spoken

- French
- English

Bar admissions & education

O'Sullivan College, Diploma of College Studies (DCS), 1986