Biography

Rosemarie earned her Bachelor of Laws from the University of Montreal in 2017 and completed her professional training at the École du Barreau in the fall of 2017. To further her knowledge in business law, she decided to pursue a Master in Business Law, also at the University of Montreal.

During her studies, Rosemarie was actively involved in the Faculty of Law, namely as a member of the board of the Association of Law Students for three years, including one year as chair. She worked as a research assistant in civil law for Patrice Deslauriers and Élise Charpentier. She was also a member of the University of Montreal Carabins rugby team for two seasons.
