

Souhail Nejjar

Associate

Montréal

OFFICE

514.871.5399

snejjar@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

EXPERTISE

Insurance Defence | Commercial Litigation

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

Quebec, 2021

EDUCATION

- Law Degree (LL.L.), University of Ottawa
- Bachelor in Political Science, School of Governance and Economics Rabat

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

Arabic, English, French

Souhail Nejjar is an associate in Miller Thomson's commercial litigation group. He joined the firm as a student before completing his articles. His practice encompasses commercial and civil litigation, including insurance and insolvency matters.

Industry involvement

Community roles

- COVID-19 Commitment: Souhail worked with the healthcare network at the beginning of the health crisis. He was first a nurse's aide at the Jewish Eldercare Centre and then a COVID agent at the Maimonides Donald Berman Geriatric Centre.

- Pro bono: Pilot project with the Court of Quebec, Small Claims Chamber: Treatment of citizen files pending before the Small Claims Chamber. Souhail presented legal information to citizens relevant to their litigation.
- Pro bono: Clinique de droit notarial de l'Outaouais (CNO): Souhail provided legal information to citizens who were in the process of litigation or who were considering taking legal action.
- Pro bono: Accompagnement des femmes immigrantes de l'Outaouais (AFIO): Souhail participated in the writing of pamphlets on the rights and protections of women in marriage, civil union or de facto union situations. These pamphlets aimed to popularize and democratize information for people who are foreign to the Quebec legal system and who are generally in fragile or dependent situations.