Biography

Titli Datta is an associate in the Regina office of Miller Thomson. Titli has an active practice in business law, with experience in commercial transactions, corporate finance, real estate, and other general corporate commercial matters.

Titli joined the Firm's Regina office as an articling student in 2016, and remained with the Firm following her call to the Saskatchewan Bar in 2017.

Titli received a Certificate of Qualification from the National Committee on Accreditation – Federation of Law Societies of Canada in 2016. She is a qualified Advocate in India and a Member of the Bar Council of Maharashtra & Goa (Provincial Bar Council in India).

In India, Titli worked in-house with the India affiliate of a global financial institution, with a focus on regulatory advisory in the field of telecommunications, customs & excise authorities, labour authorities, audits, and corporate matters.

Prior to going in-house, Titli has also worked as an Associate at a leading full service national law firm in India, where she dealt with corporate commercial matters. In her role there, she counseled foreign and Indian companies regarding acquisition of equity and assets, and focused on the drafting and negotiation of transactional documents. She also advised on various aspects of the Indian Government's Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) Policy, foreign exchange laws, labour and taxation laws.
