Biography

Yves Robillard is a litigator with more than 25 years of experience. He represents his clients in disputes related to corporate matters, securities, financial services, business agreements, insolvency, intellectual property, competition, and trusts and estates.

Yves helps business, corporations and institutions to develop practical solutions and winning strategies to their disputes. He pleads before all levels of court, arbitration panels, administrative tribunal and regulatory boards. He is also proactive in the negotiation and settlement of anticipated litigation, has extensive experience in mediation and regularly provides advice on business transactions. He has argued more than 70 reported cases before the Court of Appeal of Québec and more than 130 cases before the Superior Court of Québec.

He is a keynote speaker for the International Institute of Internal Auditors, the Association de planification fiscale et financière, the Québec Bar, banks and other financial institutions, as well as for various professional firms and associations. He also frequently writes articles related to his areas of practice, published in the Corporate Brief, Securities Practices Notes, the collection Développements récents en droit des affaires, the Presse juridique, Réseau juridique du Québec, Québec PME, l'Ingénieur civil canadien magazine and others.
