Biography

Cristina has more than 20 years of experience assisting lawyers with real estate matters including commercial purchases, sales and mortgages. Currently, she assists lawyers with reviewing title searches and off-title searches, drafting requisitions and preparing conveyancing documents.

Cristina also has a comprehensive understanding of judicial and extra-judicial mortgage enforcement procedures having assisted lawyers with hundreds of power of sale transactions, from initiating processes to post-closing surplus reporting. At her previous law firm, she assisted lawyers with the management of the mortgage recovery portfolio of a prominent institutional lender in Ontario.

Before joining Miller Thomson, Cristina was employed by a boutique real estate law firm in Vaughan from the time of her graduation as a Legal Administrative Assistant from Humber College in 1995.
