Biography

Erryn Krienke is a Litigation Paralegal in Miller Thomson's Saskatoon office. Erryn is responsible for the recovery of our unsecured products such as personal loans, credit cards and lines of credit. She is further responsible in assisting lawyers with secured farm equipment and commercial debt recovery, as well as farm and residential foreclosures. Erryn assists the lawyers in dealing with the debtors and creditors to help them reach suitable repayment arrangements, settlement and satisfaction of debts.

Before joining Miller Thomson, Erryn worked in Calgary as a personal injury assistant for 10 years and for the past 9 years in Saskatoon as a foreclosure and enforcement paralegal.
