

Lara Halliday

Paraprofessional | Edmonton

780.429.9443

lhalliday@millerthomson.com

Biography

Lara Halliday is a Commercial Real Estate Paralegal in the Edmonton office of Miller Thomson LLP. Lara has been involved in all aspects of commercial real estate transactions including acquisitions, dispositions, and mortgage financings of commercial properties such as shopping centres and apartment buildings. Lara's duties include conducting real property title searches; reviewing and summarizing the searches and addressing deficiencies; conducting due diligence searches including off-title inquiries; reviewing surveys and plans; drafting closing documents and correspondence including reports and opinions; obtaining title insurance policies; liaising with clients, lenders, and third parties including realtors, legal counsel, municipalities, and property management companies.

Education

- B.Sc., University of Alberta
- Legal Assistant Diploma (with Distinction), Grant MacEwan University