Biography

Raquel recently completed her Juris Doctor at the University of Windsor. Throughout her legal education, she was an active member of the Corporate Law Club and served as the First-Year Director of the Windsor Fashion Law Society. During her first year of law school, Raquel co-founded an e-commerce start-up in the sustainable fashion space. Raquel joined Miller Thomson as a Summer Student in 2022 with a primary focus in securities and capital markets. Raquel's experiences throughout her legal journey have nurtured her keen interest in Corporate Law.

Prior to law school, Raquel completed her undergraduate degree at the University of Western Ontario, where she pursued an Honors Specialization in Kinesiology.

Outside of the classroom, Raquel is extensively involved in giving back to the community through her involvement with Shalva, a non-profit organization. During her free time, she also enjoys running and playing the guitar.
