

Tashana Watts

Paraprofessional | Toronto

416.595.8622

twatts@millerthomson.com

Biography

Tashana has been working in real estate law since 2008 and brings a proficiency to various aspects of real estate law, specifically condo law. Tashana is dedicated to providing outstanding service to our clients and is able to attend to their needs efficiently and timely. Tashana's action-orientated work attitude makes her an essential part of our team.

Tashana's has worked at a number of Toronto firms specializing in residential real estate, condo law and commercial real estate transactions.

Education

- Law Clerk Diploma, Humber College, 2010

Community involvement

- Everybody Eats campaign providing hot meals and hygiene products to individuals living in tent cities