

Terry Doyle, BA, CHRL

Director, Talent Services | Toronto

416.597.6043

tdoyle@millerthomson.com

Biography

Terry has established her career as a Human Resources leader over the past 20 years and is experienced at creating and executing organizational best practices and programs that drive engagement and business results in diverse industries.

Terry delivers strategic leadership and oversight of the Firm's Talent Services, which encompasses Recruitment, Total Rewards and Performance. She oversees a national team of Talent Services professionals with a mandate to deliver value executing a seamless approach to people, culture and performance in the recruitment, development and management of people resources.

Terry is an active member with the Ontario Human Resources Professionals Association and holds a CHRL designation and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from York University.

Education

- Bachelor of Arts, York University
- Certified Human Resources Leader (CHRL)

Thought leadership

- Terry has been a guest presenter at the Benefits Canada Benefits & Pensions Summit

Professional memberships

- Terry is an active Member of the HRP of Ontario