Biographie

( Disponible en anglais seulement )

Ben Peel maintains a broad civil litigation practice. He has experience with injunction proceedings, examinations for discovery, settlement conferences, motions, mediations, arbitrations, tribunals, and trials.

Ben joined Miller Thomson as a summer student in 2016. After completing his articles, he joined Miller Thomson as an associate in 2018.

Before joining the firm, Ben worked as a Research Assistant and as a Senior Caseworker at the Business Law Clinic at the University of Ottawa. Prior to attending law school, he worked at an international auditing firm, and before that, at a boutique market research firm.

Passionate about workplace diversity and inclusion, Ben was a founding member of the Ottawa chapter of Start Proud. The organization is dedicated to creating opportunities for LGBT students and young professionals across Canada.
