

Rebecca LeGras

Parajuriste | London

519.931.3529

rlegras@millerthomson.com

Biographie

(Disponible en anglais seulement)

Rebecca LeGras has been assisting businesses with items such as articles of incorporation, reorganization, restructuring, estate freezes, purchases and sales for small start-ups to multi-million dollar corporations for over eighteen years. She verily believes that all aspects of any work completed for any business should be broken down so officers, directors and shareholders can fully comprehend the full mechanics of the work being completed on their behalf and why.

Rebecca focuses her work in the areas of Corporate, Commercial and Business Law, with tasks such as:

- Incorporations, Provincial, Federal, Not for Profit and Non Share corporations and searches
- Preparation of all articles of amendment and amalgamations
- Preparation of annual minutes, dividends, officer and director appointments and related maintenance
- Preparation of all shareholder agreements
- Preparation of all roll-over agreements and documents to facilitate estate freezes, share exchange and other re-organizational and accessory resolutions and documents
- Complete review and updating of all corporate matters
- Recreation of misplaced, delinquent or incomplete corporate minute books
- Corporate share purchase and sale agreements and all accessory resolutions, documents and security searches relating to same
- Small Claims Court, Construction Lien and Civil Litigation
- Drafting claims, defence, motions and judgement
- Collections and disputes
- Estate Planning
- Lease and lease negotiations

Rebecca has over eighteen years of experience in the corporate, commercial and business law environment together with various other areas of law. Having a multi-faceted exposure has allowed her to have a broad spectrum of view of information in order to provide solid advice and guidance.

Formation et admission au barreau

- Paralegal Diploma, Westervelt College, 2000