Biographie

(Disponible en anglais seulement)

Christian recently completed his JD at Osgoode Hall Law School. Prior to law school, he completed his undergraduate degree in Kinesiology at the University of Western Ontario.

During law school, Christian participated in the Osgoode Business Clinic as a senior case-worker, where he worked with a newly formed business to develop a set of standard form contracts tailored to their needs. In his third year, he participated in Osgoode's Intensive Program in Indigenous Lands, Resources and Governments, where he spent the Winter of 2020 in Chilliwack, British Columbia, working at the Sto:lo Research and Resource Management Centre on Indigenous and environmental legal issues.

In his spare time, Christian enjoys spending time in the outdoors, most recently by learning to fly-fish. He is an avid skier, and spent the Winter of 2017 in Revelstoke, British Columbia. Christian also enjoys playing golf, running, and cooking on the barbecue.
