Ali focuses in financing, bringing to the table in-depth knowledge of financing transactions and different types of loan structures. From negotiating to drafting loan agreements, he offers his clients turnkey financial solutions tailored to the specifications of each financing transaction. Each step of the way, Ali strives to provide personalized and thoughtful support with a structured approach.

From the outset of his practice, he has been honing his expertise in financing, covering a wide range of financing transactions while working closely with both lenders and borrowers.

His practice is centred on financing transactions at all scales: whether from the borrower or the lender's perspective.

Industry involvement

Community roles

Ali volunteers with various community organizations supporting newcomer communities in Montréal. In his home borough of Ahuntsic, Ali served on the Board of Directors for CANA (Carrefour d'aide aux nouveaux arrivants). He also contributed to refugee integration initiatives with the YMCA.
