Ana focuses her practice on corporate and commercial litigation, securities litigation, professional discipline, and regulatory investigations, representing clients in complex disputes. She brings a distinct perspective to her practice, drawing on a background in financial regulation and corporate governance to advise clients navigating regulatory scrutiny and enforcement proceedings, particularly within the financial services sector. Ana also has a strong interest in legal technology, having spent several years developing her coding skills and studying innovation in legal service delivery, which allows her to approach litigation matters with an eye toward efficiency and practical problem-solving.

Ana holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Ottawa and an Honours Bachelor of Arts in Legal Studies from the University of Waterloo. Prior to law school, she gained practical experience with major Canadian financial institutions and worked with a boutique law firm on integrating AI programs into daily operations.

Ana is passionate about giving back to her community and regularly volunteers with local Serbian organizations. Outside the office, she enjoys art history, spending time with friends and with her dog, Leo.
