Bernard Blouin is a seasoned business lawyer with extensive expertise in corporate finance, venture capital, mergers and acquisitions, as well as capital markets and derivatives. He regularly advises technology companies on strategic growth initiatives and assists major public debt issuers with financing transactions. Bernard has also served on Miller Thomson's Executive Committee.

Beyond his legal practice, Bernard has presented at various finance conferences and recently co-authored a chapter in a European publication on Canada's perspective on public green bonds.

With both a B.C.L. and an LL.B. from McGill University, Bernard's strong academic background enhances his legal practice. He also holds a master's degree in economics from Johns Hopkins University (S.A.I.S.). Recognized by Best Lawyers in Canada for his expertise in mergers and acquisitions, securities law, and leveraged buyouts and private equity, Bernard stands out in these essential areas of business law. His numerous accolades highlight his dedication and commitment to clients.
