Brandon Bova is building a broad litigation practice focused on complex business disputes arising in the construction and infrastructure sectors. He advises clients on construction contracts, lien and trust claims, project delays, professional negligence, and other corporate, shareholder, and real estate-related conflicts. Brandon has experience working on matters involving motions, examinations for discovery, mediation, arbitration, adjudication, and trial.

Brandon brings a practical and solutions-oriented approach to his practice by understanding the legal issues and the broader commercial context of each dispute. He differentiates himself through careful preparation, strong written and oral advocacy, and a consistent focus on achieving effective resolutions for his clients.
