Bruno Caron is leader of the ESG and Carbon Finance Group at Miller Thomson, specialising in commercial law, capital markets transactions and mergers and acquisitions. He is also deeply engaged in sustainable finance, climate change mitigation, and biodiversity conservation, bringing his international expertise to a broad range of clients.

Bruno's international experience in the United States and Romania gives him a global perspective on capital markets and corporate social responsibility. He advises on securities offerings, private placements, and more. Through his speaking engagements and publications, he demonstrates his commitment to legal excellence and knowledge sharing. He also provides guidance on climate governance to boards of directors and pension plan trustees.

With a law degree from Université de Montréal, a degree in mathematics and computer science from McGill University, and a certificate in ESG, climate risk, and law from Osgoode Hall Law School, Bruno has broad expertise in capital markets, sustainable finance, renewable energy, and the pharmaceutical sector. Since 2021, he has been recognized by Best Lawyers in Canada for his work in mergers and acquisitions and securities law.
