Camille Beaudry is a lawyer specializing in construction litigation who joined the Miller Thomson team in January 2022. Holding both an LL. B. and an MBA from Université de Sherbrooke, Camille focuses on complex litigation and brings valuable expertise gained throughout her legal career in Montréal.

Graduating in 2020, Camille combines a strong background in both law and management, enhancing her credibility as a construction lawyer. Her dual LL. B. and MBA degrees reflect her commitment to ongoing professional growth and her ability to deliver strategic legal solutions for her clients.

As a member of the Quebec Bar and the Montréal Young Bar Association, Camille is committed to the highest standards of the legal profession. Her involvement in these organizations reflects her dedication to upholding ethical practices and to continuing to progress through the practice of law in Quebec.
