Biography

Cecily is Saskatchewan paraprofessional specializing in corporate and commercial work, bringing broad, hands-on experience across complex business transactions and real estate matters. Cecily regularly supports business purchases and sales, corporate reorganizations, rollovers and amalgamations. In commercial real estate, Cecily has considerable experience with standard, CMHC and construction mortgages, as well as farmland purchases and sales. What sets Cecily apart is a deep working knowledge of ISC registrations and searches at both Land Registry and Corporate Registry, supported by a strong understanding of procedures and process. These strengths allow Cecily to anticipate issues before they arise and keep transactions moving smoothly. Cecily's experience also extends to estates and estate planning, residential real estate, and litigation, providing clients and legal teams with well-rounded, reliable support across interconnected practice areas.

Cecily offers substantial corporate, commercial, and real estate experience and is appointed as a Commissioner for Oaths for Saskatchewan, reflecting a high level of professional trust and responsibility in legal and transactional work.
