

Chris Klok

Associate

Edmonton, Calgary

OFFICE

403.298.2459

cklok@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

INDUSTRIES

Banking and Financial Services | Construction and Infrastructure | Energy and Natural Resources

EXPERTISE

Commercial Litigation | Construction Litigation | Labour and Employment | Securities Litigation

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

Alberta, 2024

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Arts, University of Victoria, 2016
- Masters of Arts, Queen's University, 2020
- JD, University of Alberta, 2023 (with Distinction)

Chris' practice focuses on all areas of corporate and commercial litigation and dispute resolution. He has appeared before the Alberta Court of Justice and the Alberta Court of King's Bench.

Chris has successfully defended employers against a variety of employment claims, including wrongful dismissal claims. He has helped defend a large engineering and procurement business against a variety of contractual claims. He has also assisted in defending a large oil and gas producer against shareholder actions.

Chris is a member of the Advocates' Society and regularly volunteers with as Civil Claims Duty Counsel.

Industry involvement

Community roles

- Civil Claims Duty Counsel

Memberships & affiliations

- Advocates' Society
- Canadian Bar Association