

Chris Klok

Sociétaire

Edmonton, Calgary

BUREAU

403.298.2459

cklok@millerthomson.com

Secteurs et Expertises

SECTEURS

Institutions financières | Construction et infrastructures | Énergie et ressources naturelles

EXPERTISE

Litige commercial | Litige en construction | Droit du travail et droit de l'emploi | Litige en matière de valeurs mobilières

Biographie

ADMISSION AU BARREAU

Alberta, 2024

FORMATION

- Bachelor of Arts, University of Victoria, 2016
- Masters of Arts, Queen's University, 2020
- JD, University of Alberta, 2023 (with Distinction)

Chris' practice focuses on all areas of corporate and commercial litigation and dispute resolution. He has appeared before the Alberta Court of Justice and the Alberta Court of King's Bench.

Chris has successfully defended employers against a variety of employment claims, including wrongful dismissal claims. He has helped defend a large engineering and procurement business against a variety of contractual claims. He has also assisted in defending a large oil and gas producer against shareholder actions.

Chris is a member of the Advocates' Society and regularly volunteers with as Civil Claims Duty Counsel.

Engagement

Engagement communautaire

- Civil Claims Duty Counsel

Associations et affiliations professionnelles

- Advocates' Society
- Canadian Bar Association