

Christine de Lint

Agente de marques de commerce
principale et parajuriste spécialisée
en réglementation

Toronto

BUREAU

416.595.8179

cdelint@millerthomson.com

Secteurs et Expertises

EXPERTISE

Propriété intellectuelle | Marketing, publicité et conformité des produits

Biographie

FORMATION

- Registered Trademark Agent, 2000
- Law Clerk Diploma, Mohawk College, 1996
- Sociology and Economics, University of Toronto, 1992

Christine de Lint, a Senior Trademark Agent and Regulatory Paralegal in the Marketing, Advertising, and Regulatory Law Group, boasts two decades of trademark expertise from leading law firms and a globally recognized technology company. Her skill set encompasses the full spectrum of trademark tasks, from clearance to international portfolio management, as well as navigating regulatory compliance for diverse industries like alcohol, food, cannabis, and natural health.

Christine holds memberships in key industry bodies such as the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada, Toronto Intellectual Property Group, and the International Trademark Association.

Christine also has significant experience with the intellectual property aspects of commercial transactions including due diligence, preparation of assignments, licenses and records relating thereto. She has achieved recognition in well-respected industry directories.

Engagement

Reconnaissance

- Who's Who Legal: Trademarks, 2016 – 2018, 2020

Associations et affiliations professionnelles

- Intellectual Property Institute of Canada
- Toronto Intellectual Property Group
- International Trademark Association