Biographie

Christine Thompson, a paralegal at Miller Thomson LLP's Vancouver office, brings a wealth of experience to her role in the litigation department, with a focus on insurance defence. Christine also works on commercial and other litigation matters, property and casualty claims, occupier's liability, and subrogated claims matters. Prior to becoming a certified paralegal in May 2006 through part-time studies at Capilano University, Christine was a legal assistant in Miller Thomson LLP's Vancouver office from 2001 to 2006, obtaining her certificate through Douglas College in 1990.
