Biography

Dianne Ribeiro brings over two decades of real estate knowledge and experience to her role as a law clerk at Miller Thomson LLP in Vaughan. With a background encompassing complex commercial real estate and financing transactions along with experience in registration of plans of subdivision, Dianne strives to provide an excellent and stress-free experience for clients. Dianne's previous experience as real estate law clerk for medium-sized firms, an in-house legal department, and a municipality in the Greater Toronto Area, enriches her insights and skills.
