

Félix Leblanc-Prat

Associate

He/Him/His

Montréal

OFFICE

514.871.5426 (Montréal)

fleblancprat@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

INDUSTRIES

Construction and Infrastructure

EXPERTISE

Construction Litigation

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

Quebec, 2025

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Laws, Université de Montréal, 2023

Bachelor's degree in Economics and Political Science, Université de Montréal, 2020

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

English, French

Felix joined the Construction Law group after completing his articling with the firm. He is an efficient researcher and a talented legal writer.

During his studies, Felix volunteered with several legal clinics. He also served as a research assistant to both a professor in Constitutional Law and a Superior Court judge. He distinguished himself by winning a legal writing competition and appearing on the Dean's Honour List.

Industry involvement

Community roles

Félix's essay on judges' discretionary power and its limits in interpreting the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms won 1st place in the 11th edition of the interfaculty legal drafting competition organized by the Université Laval Louis-Philippe-Pigeon Legal Drafting Chair .

As part of his involvement with the Université de Montréal Legal Clinic, his article on provisions to cover legal costs of family law proceedings was posted on the Legal Clinic's website.

Also in volunteering for the Université de Montréal Legal Clinic, he organized and presented a seminar on protecting vulnerable seniors in housing matters to some sixty stakeholders from Organisation d'éducation et d'information logement de Côte-des-Neiges.