

Ian Wilson

Partner

Edmonton

OFFICE

780.429.9403

iwilson@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

EXPERTISE

Administrative & Public Law | Commercial Litigation | Labour & Employment | Human Rights | Workplace Health & Safety

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

Alberta, 2018

EDUCATION

- Juris Doctor, University of Alberta, 2017
- Bachelor of Science, with a major in Biology and a minor in History, University of Alberta, 2008

Ian Wilson is an experienced member of Miller Thomson's Administrative Law, Labour and Employment, and Commercial Litigation groups. Ian advises employers in both federally and provincially regulated industries, on a wide range of matters such as employment standards, human rights, occupational health and safety, and labour relations matters. He prides himself on providing effective and pragmatic advice to employers on the day to day matters affecting their businesses.

Industry involvement

Recognition

- Best Lawyers in Canada: Ones to Watch – Labour and Employment Law, 2024 – 2025; Corporate and Commercial Litigation, 2025

Thought leadership

- Speaker, “Navigating COVID-19: Your Employment Questions Answered,” Miller Thomson Labour & Employment Webinar, May 7, 2020
- Author, “Alberta: Recent changes to employment standards,” Labour and Employment Communiqué, December 11, 2019

Community roles

- Coach, Laurier Heights Community Soccer, 2005-2008
- Coach, Canadian Athletic Club Hockey, 2008-2009
- Instructor, Crestwood Power Skating, 2004-2008

Memberships & affiliations

- Member, Law Society of Alberta