Jeren Tuchscherer brings a solutions-driven mindset to his work in the Business Law Group. With a focus in banking and financial services, mergers and acquisitions, Jeren understands that clients are looking for legal support that combines practical insights with a down-to-earth approach. Whether he's guiding lenders and borrowers – including financing for Indigenous groups both on-reserve and off-reserve—or managing the intricacies of an M&A deal, Jeren is dedicated to delivering clear, effective solutions that keep clients’ goals front and centre. He also offers strategic advice in the purchase and sale of residential and commercial properties. From advising condominium developers and home builders through every phase of a project to advising on commercial and agricultural financing, Jeren is committed to making the legal process smooth, strategic, and focused on client success.
