Jessica, an associate in the firm's litigation group, specializes in corporate/commercial litigation, construction disputes, and debt recovery and enforcement. Jessica's background in social work, including client advocacy, case management, and project development, gives her a unique perspective in building relationships and strategizing to advance clients' needs, interests, and goals effectively.

Jessica's commitment to her community is reflected in her pro bono work, providing free legal advice through volunteer channels, as well as her involvement as the secretary for her local community association.

Jessica received her Juris Doctorate of Law from the College of Law at the University of Saskatchewan in 2020. She was called to the Alberta bar in 2021 and to the Saskatchewan bar in 2023.
