Joanne Biron leads Miller Thomson's National Family Law team, a group she created of over 20 lawyers. With a focus on representing business professionals, Joanne is a seasoned expert in divorce, child custody, alimony, and other family law matters. She has a successful track record which includes notable cases taken before all levels of court in Canada and internationally. She deals in particular with files where trusts and complicated structures are involved.

Joanne graduated with an LLL from Université de Montréal in 1980, laying a solid foundation for her legal career and expertise in Family Law.

Joanne is a member of the Canadian Bar Association, the Bar of Montreal, and the Association des avocats et avocates en droit familial du Québec. Her accolades include being listed in The Best Lawyers in Canada and The Canadian Legal Lexpert® Directory for many consecutive years. She received a BV Rating (Distinguished) in the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review.
