Kelly Charlebois, an experienced estate and trust litigator, is known for her tenacious advocacy and strategic approach to handling complex cases. As the Leader of Miller Thomson's National Estates & Trusts Group, Kelly excels in matters involving estates, trusts, and capacity-related proceedings. Her extensive knowledge and experience extends to will challenges, guardianship applications, and breach of trust cases, where she has experience representing high-net-worth individuals, institutions, and charitable organizations. Drawing on a solid background in commercial litigation, Kelly adeptly represents clients in intricate legal disputes.

A sought-after speaker, Kelly is frequently called upon to present at conferences for both national and local associations including the Law Society of Ontario, the Ontario Bar Association, the Advocates Society and the Canadian Association of Gift Planners. Kelly actively contributes valuable insights to the legal community through her publications and editorial roles.

Kelly is actively involved in various professional associations, including the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners and the Advocates' Society. Recognized for her exceptional skills, Kelly has been featured in reputable legal directories such as Chambers High Net Worth Guide (Band 1), The Best Lawyers in Canada, Who's Who Legal and The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory. With accolades like Benchmark Canada's Litigation Star designation, Kelly's prowess in the legal field is widely acknowledged and respected.
