Khurrum Awan brings a wealth of experience to Miller Thomson in Regina. His experience and knowledge in commercial and constitutional litigation spans contractual disputes, construction claims, and class actions. He has appeared in a variety of courts and tribunals across the country representing insurers, crown corporations, agricultural manufacturers, lessors and producers as they pursue and defend a broad range of commercial disputes. Khurram's knack for public law is evident in his work with crown corporations, public school boards, and farmers, making him a versatile and reliable legal ally. He also acted as counsel to Saskatchewan's farmers on a constitutional reference regarding the federal carbon pricing legislation.

Khurram has authored insightful pieces on constitutional matters and presented on significant legal topics like Anti-Terrorism Legislation and changes to Canada's citizenship laws. This diverse background underscores his ability to navigate complex legal landscapes with finesse.

Khurram displays a commitment to his craft that benefits his clients and his broader community. In addition to his academic legal accolades, he was awarded the Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Medal for service to the Province of Saskatchewan in Business and Commerce, while CBC Saskatchewan selected him as one of its Future 40 group of young leaders shaping the future of the province.
