ADMISSION AU BARREAU

Ontario, 2003

FORMATION

- Bachelor of Arts (Philosophy) from Wilfrid Laurier University.

Mark Kok (pronounced “Coke”) has been representing developers in Southwestern Ontario since 2007, focusing on land development law. He assists clients through every stage of condominium and subdivision development, from acquisition to sales. Mark is known for his concise approach, simplifying complex processes to save time and reduce costs. His experience covers residential and commercial projects, including condominium registrations and conversions. He also handles condominium lien matters, ensuring compliance while protecting clients’ interests. Mark’s journey includes eight years as a police officer before delving into law, embodying a unique blend of experience and skill. Mark started his legal career at mid-sized firms in Kitchener, Ontario, before founding Clifton Kok LLP along with Michael Clifton in 2007. Michael is joining Mark as Associate Counsel at Miller Thomson and the two will continue to collaborate in order to provide excellent and comprehensive services to their clients.
