

Matthew E. Wray

Associate

Vancouver

OFFICE

604.643.1265

mwray@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

EXPERTISE

Labour & Employment | Commercial Litigation | Contractual Disputes | Shareholders Disputes | Corporate and Business Disputes

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

British Columbia, 2021

EDUCATION

- J.D., Thompson Rivers University, 2020
- B.A., University of British Columbia, 2014

Matthew, an associate in Miller Thomson's advocacy group, maintains a broad litigation practice providing dispute resolution services in a variety of different areas including contract disputes, fraud and commercial litigation among many others. He also advises on labour and employment matters, offering guidance on policies, employee handbooks, and agreements, as well as representing clients in both unionized and non-unionized settings. Matthew has appeared before various boards and tribunals as well as British Columbia's Provincial and Supreme Courts.

Matthew, a former UBC varsity men's ice hockey player and proud alumni, grew up playing team sports across North America. He actively volunteers as a mentor for the Canadian Bar Association, the UBC men's ice hockey team, and in other informal mentorship roles.

Industry involvement

Community roles

- Pro Bono Students Canada, 2017-2020