Michael Arbutina brings over 20 years of experience to his practice in commercial and construction litigation, with a focus on construction liens, shareholder disputes, real estate/lease enforcement, debt collection, breach of contract claims and class action defence. Viewed by his clients as a trusted advisor, they call on him for general advice with respect to all aspects of their business. Known for his candid and pragmatic legal advice and solutions, Michael handles urgent matters like lien registrations and injunctions, representing a diverse clientele including builders, contractors, landlords, and tenants both in court and regulatory settings.

Michael's industry engagement, including the co-authorship of a Canadian Consulting Engineer Magazine article on the lienability of prefabricated modular buildings, demonstrates his commitment to remaining informed and engaged within his legal practice.

Michael is an active member of professional bodies including the Law Society of Ontario, Canadian Bar Association, and Ontario Bar Association. Recognized for his deep knowledge and experience, he has been listed in The Best Lawyers in Canada for construction law and in the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory for litigation – corporate commercial.
