Michael Pucylo is dedicated to helping people who have been injured in motor vehicle accidents. With an eye for detail, he ensures all necessary medical opinions and employment information are gathered to properly quantify his client's claims. Building on his background in Commerce, Michael is up to the challenge of quantifying damages for his personal injury clients, even in self-employed cases. Backed by 30 years of personal injury law experience, Michael is well prepared to successfully resolve his clients' claims.

Beyond his legal achievements, Michael's academic feats and speaking engagements reveal his commitment to continuous learning and sharing knowledge. He is a volunteer for the Edmonton Community Legal Centre, providing pro bono legal services to those who cannot afford access to legal services and has also been ordained as a Permanent Deacon in the Catholic Archdiocese of Edmonton, making him a true standout in both his legal and local communities.

Michael's legal knowledge and experience shine through his memberships in the Law Society of Alberta, Canadian Bar Association, and Alberta Civil Trial Lawyers' Association, where he is also a frequent presenter. His accolades, such as being named among "The Best Lawyers in Canada" for Personal Injury Litigation, speak volumes about his skill and dedication in the legal realm.
