

Biographie

Neha Goel is building a practice focused on commercial transactions and leasing, with the goal of providing practical, business-minded solutions to clients in this space. She brings a thoughtful, client-first approach to her work and is committed to supporting clients through all phases, from acquisitions to leasing and development.

Neha joined Miller Thomson as a summer student in 2023 and returned to complete her articles with the firm in 2024. She earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law in 2024 and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2025. Before law school, Neha completed a Bachelor of Arts at the University of Alberta in Economics and Psychology.

While in law school, Neha was a Co-President of the South Asian Law Student's Association. Neha was also the project lead for the GTA Wills Project as part of Pro-Bono Students Canada. A proud Edmonton Oilers fan, Neha is an avid traveller and food enthusiast who enjoys exploring new cultures and cuisines.