Biography

EDUCATION

- Paralegal Diploma, Vancouver Career College, 2012
- Various CLE courses

Nora has over a dozen years of experience in corporate transactional work, including tax driven transactions, reorganizations, amalgamations, share purchases and asset purchases, changes of directors and officers, joint venture agreements, and trust transactions. Nora assisted a firm by taking it from completely paper-based to fully digital and built an ALF database from scratch. She has rectified over a hundred minute books and brought them up to date. Throughout the years, Nora has mentored and instructed other paraprofessionals and legal assistants to ensure maximum value for clients.

Nora continues to build on and advance her knowledge by routinely enrolling in CLE courses.

Nora has many years experience in a busy tax role, that has included all types of rollovers, alterations, drafting complicated rights and restrictions, and many trust transactions. She has six years of experience using ECorp and six years of experience using ALF. Nora has learned many different corporate transactions and continues to grow her knowledge base.
