FORMATION

- Bachelor of Commerce – University of Alberta, 1997
- Chartered Accountant designation – 1999
- Juris Doctor – University of Calgary – 2015

Perry is a partner in the Saskatoon office, advising on corporate and personal tax planning, reorganizations, and estate planning. His practice focuses on owner-managed and agricultural enterprises, where he supports clients in structuring their affairs to achieve tax efficiency and long-term planning objectives. He is known for communicating complex tax and financial concepts in a clear and practical manner, helping clients understand their options and make informed decisions.

Prior to joining the firm, Perry was a partner at a preeminent tax boutique where he utilized his accounting and legal background to develop and implement creative and effective tax planning structures. Perry is recognized as a Lexpert leading lawyer in corporate tax, is a member of the Saskatchewan and Alberta bar, and is also a member of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Saskatchewan and Alberta.
