Rosalie Fischetti is an experienced licensed paralegal and legal professional with more than a decade of experience supporting clients and legal teams across a broad range of matters. Recognized for her practical approach, strong organizational skills, and commitment to exceptional service, she brings valuable insight gained from both boutique and larger law firm environments.

As a member of the General Counsel Office, Rosalie oversees the firm's insurance and collections claims, directorship requests, client verification processes, and other risk management and compliance matters. Her experience as both an independent practitioner and a member of established law firms enables her to provide practical, efficient solutions while understanding the operational realities facing legal professionals and clients. Rosalie distinguishes herself through her ability to combine legal knowledge and a client-focused mindset to deliver responsive and effective support.

Rosalie's background spans Small Claims Court, Landlord and Tenant Board proceedings, commercial litigation, legal administration, client relations, and law firm operations

Rosalie is committed to supporting the legal profession and delivering meaningful service to clients and colleagues. She values collaboration, professionalism, and continuous learning, and actively contributes to the success of the legal teams and organization she serves.
